

vestry men and church wardens, and the regular meetings of the vestry of Somerset parish in Somerset county. The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates returned the bill authorising the recording of a deed from Daniel Schnebly, late sheriff of Washington county, to Emanuel Newcomer, endorsed, 'will pass.'

And delivered a bill to provide for holding on the same day throughout the State the elections for choosing delegates to the general assembly, sheriffs of the respective counties, representatives in congress, electors of the senate and electors of president and vice-president, of the United States, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Heath and Dennis.

Mr. Kennedy from the committee to whom was referred the bill to incorporate the Westminster savings institution reported the same, with the following amendment, which was read the first time and on motion of Mr. Forrest ordered to lie on the table. Amendment proposed.

Section 9. And be it enacted, that nothing in this act contained shall be held or construed to authorise the company incorporated by this act, to do any act or acts in consistent with the privileges secured to the existing banking institution, in the State of Maryland, by any acts of assembly now in force. Mr. Marriott president, appeared in the senate.

Mr. Sewell from the committee to whom was referred the bill entitled, an act to provide for electing commissioners for Harford county, and prescribing their powers and duties, reported the same with the following amendments.

1st. Strike out the whole of the 1st section of the bill after the enacting clause, and insert, 'That the persons qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly in Harford county, shall at the time and places of election in said county, on the first Monday of October next, and on the first Monday of October in every three years, thereafter, vote by ballot for one person, a resident of the district in which the voter is entitled to vote for delegates as aforesaid, and also having the same qualifications as are, or shall be required for such delegates, to be a commissioner for Harford county—and the Judges of elections for each district in said county or a majority of